Universal Declaration of Safe Sex

Preamble

Acknowledging the inherent dignity, freedom, and equal rights of all individuals as the foundation of a just and peaceful society,

Recognizing the fundamental importance of sexual health, rights, and freedoms as essential components of human well-being and development,

Affirming the need for a society that promotes consent, education, respect, and protection in all matters of sexual activity and expression,

Determined to create a world where every individual can express their sexuality freely, safely, and without fear of judgment, coercion, or violence,

We, the people, hereby adopt this Universal Declaration of Safe Sex as a standard for all to strive towards, to ensure the dignity, respect, and safety of every person in their sexual lives.

Articles
