1. Executive Summary

This report outlines a renewed investigation into the intelligence failures and strategic decisions surrounding the September 11, 2001 terrorist attacks. It explores the role of high-level officials, including Donald Rumsfeld, and the ideological influence of the Project for the New American Century (PNAC). The aim is to inform structural reform, support accountability, and prevent future misuse of intelligence infrastructure.

2. Background and Historical Context

2.1. The 9/11 Attacks

Overview of the attacks, casualties, destruction, and resulting U.S. military responses.

2.2. The Official Narrative

Summary of the 9/11 Commission Report and key criticisms from independent analysts and whistleblowers.

3. Intelligence Failures and Institutional Blind Spots

3.1. Pre-Attack Warnings and Ignored Signals

Details on the Phoenix Memo, the August 6 PDB, and other intelligence that pointed to impending attacks.

3.2. Breakdown of Interagency Communication

Analysis of stovepiping and failure of coordination among CIA, FBI, NSA, and DoD.

4. Key Actors and Conflicts of Interest

4.1. Donald Rumsfeld

Examination of his role, public statements, and alignment with PNAC goals.

4.2. Dick Cheney

Evaluation of his emergency decisions and control of NORAD communications.

4.3. George W. Bush and the NSC

Review of presidential briefings and policy inaction prior to 9/11.

5. PNAC Doctrine and Its Implications

5.1. Key Documents

Analysis of “Rebuilding America’s Defenses” and the “new Pearl Harbor” reference.

5.2. Members in Government

The influence of PNAC members on Bush-era military strategy.

5.3. Policy Continuity Post-9/11

Connection between PNAC vision and wars in Afghanistan and Iraq.

6. Structural and Economic Incentives

6.1. Military-Industrial Complex

Financial gains by contractors post-9/11 and their lobbying roles.

6.2. Privatization of Intelligence

Shift to private surveillance firms and reduction in public oversight.

7. Media Complicity and Narrative Control

7.1. Mainstream Media Framing

Contrasting early journalistic skepticism with long-term consensus framing.

7.2. Whistleblower Suppression

Case studies of individuals who attempted to expose systemic failures.

8. Investigative Methodology

8.1. Sources

Reliance on declassified documents, FOIA records, and open-source intelligence.

8.2. Tools

Use of AI-enhanced analysis, network mapping, and digital forensics.

9. Calls for Accountability and Justice

9.1. Legal Avenues

Reopening congressional investigations and exploring international legal options.

9.2. Structural Reforms

Recommendations for intelligence oversight and defense budget transparency.

10. Recommendations and Forward Strategy

Establishment of a People's Commission on 9/11, creation of transparency tools using AI (e.g., PeaceMakerGPT), and embedding peace and accountability into global governance.
