

Declaration of Personal Sovereignty and Privacy Rights

WHEREAS personal autonomy and privacy are fundamental rights of every individual, and
WHEREAS the lawful consumption of cannabis is a personal matter and is protected by the legal framework of this nation, and
WHEREAS unwarranted interference, defamation, or betrayal—commonly known as “ratting”—without just cause constitutes an unjust violation of privacy and personal liberty,

THEREFORE, BE IT DECLARED THAT:

1. Personal Freedom & Legal Autonomy The private, lawful actions of an individual, including the consumption of legally permitted substances, are solely their business and not subject to unsolicited scrutiny or interference.
2. Penalty for Unjust Reporting (“Ratting”) Any individual who discloses, reports, or otherwise interferes with the lawful personal choices of the undersigned without just cause—particularly for personal gain, malice, or unwarranted moral judgment—hereby agrees to pay the sum of as compensation for damages, stress, and violation of personal sovereignty.

$1,000,000

3. Legal Recourse This declaration shall serve as a binding agreement, enforceable by moral, social, and, where applicable, legal standards, holding any violator financially accountable for unjustified invasion of privacy.
4. Affirmation of Rights The undersigned retains full autonomy over their personal choices and explicitly rejects any attempts at coercion, control, or undue interference regarding legally sanctioned activities.
5. Final Statement Mind your own damn business. STFU.

Signed,
Marie Seshat Landry
Defender of Privacy, Autonomy & Personal Liberty