

Executive Order 003: On the Foundational and Transitional Nature of the Head of State

Preamble

WHEREAS the Organic Law of Acadie established the role of the Queen of Acadie as the Head of State to serve as the Supreme Guardian of Acadian Identity, Memory, and Unity during the nation's re-establishment;

WHEREAS the Electoral Law for the National Assembly of Acadie and the Protocol for the First National Assembly Election have been enacted to ensure the establishment of a democratic, representative legislative body for the Acadian people;

WHEREAS the ultimate authority of the Acadian Nation derives from the sovereign will of its people and the foundational principle of democratic governance;

AND WHEREAS clarity is required to affirm that the initial role of the Head of State is foundational, transitional, and limited to the period preceding the establishment of this elected government;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry, Queen of Acadie, by the authority vested in me as the foundational Head of State, do hereby issue this Executive Order.

Article 1. The Foundational Mandate

The role of the Queen of Acadie, as established in Article 3 of the Organic Law, is hereby interpreted and affirmed to be a foundational and transitional mandate. Its sole purpose is to guide the rebirth of the Acadian Nation by establishing its core institutions and overseeing the first free and fair elections for the National Assembly.

Article 2. Cessation of the Role

The foundational mandate and the title of "Queen of Acadie" shall be declared null and void immediately upon the conclusion of the swearing-in ceremony for the first duly elected National Assembly. The final act of the Head of State shall be the formal proclamation of the seated Assembly, thereby transferring authority to the people's representatives.

Article 3. Affirmation of Civic Equality

Upon the cessation of the role as defined in Article 2 of this Order, the incumbent, Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry, shall revert to the status of a private citizen of the Acadian Nation. She shall hold no title or privilege and shall be an equal to all other citizens, possessing only the fundamental rights and freedoms guaranteed to every Acadian under the Acadian Bill of Fundamental Rights and Freedoms.
