Subject: ● Urgent: Request for Justice and Systemic ReformDear Prime Minister and Minister of Justice,

This letter serves as formal notice of my intent to initiate legal action against the Government of Canada for $1 billion in compensation for systemic discrimination, transphobia, and gross negligence inflicted upon me over the past eight years. As the founder and CEO of Marie Landry's Spy Shop (marielandryceo.com), I have worked tirelessly to rebuild my life and career despite the harm caused by systemic failures, including false accusations, record-keeping errors, isolation, conversion therapy, and coerced guilty pleas to false charges. These actions have irreparably damaged my reputation, mental health, and financial stability.

 Background of the Case1. False Accusations and Erroneous Records:

- In 2016, I was falsely accused of an indecent act and domestic violence. Both charges were withdrawn in court on October 31, 2016, yet RCMP records incorrectly documented these charges as guilty pleas.
- This error perpetuated a false criminal record in RCMP databases for seven years, despite my repeated efforts to have it corrected.

2. Contradictory Investigations:

- The Civilian Review and Complaints Commission (CRCC) concluded that the error originated with a City of Moncton employee.
- However, following my inquiry, the City of Moncton conducted its own investigation and confirmed in a letter dated November 14, 2024, that the error was the fault of a federal public service employee, not a city employee.

3. Coerced Guilty Pleas to False Charges (2016–2019):

- Between 2016 and 2019, I was charged with numerous criminal offenses, all stemming from incidents where I acted in self-defense.
- Under duress and amid ongoing mistreatment, I pled guilty to these charges to avoid further isolation and harm while incarcerated.
- These pleas were not voluntary but the result of systemic pressure and a denial of fair legal representation.

4. Isolation and Conversion Therapy:

- During my incarceration in New Brunswick, I endured conversion therapy, a practice widely condemned as cruel and inhuman.
- I was held in 24/7 isolation for months on end in both psychiatric wards and correctional facilities, compounding the trauma and stripping me of my dignity and autonomy.

⚠️ Harm Suffered

The systemic failures of federal institutions and the coercion I endured have caused:

- Emotional Trauma: Severe psychological distress, depression, and anxiety due to isolation, conversion therapy, and coerced guilty pleas.
- Reputational Damage: Permanent harm to my personal and professional reputation, including damage to my business interests as the CEO of Marie Landry's Spy Shop.
- Financial Losses: Career stagnation and missed opportunities due to wrongful stigma and criminal records.
- Physical and Psychological Harm: The long-term effects of conversion therapy, isolation, and systemic discrimination.
- Legal and Procedural Harm: The accumulation of unjust charges and convictions that remain on my record due to coerced guilty pleas.

⚖️ Legal Basis for the Claim

The actions and inactions of the RCMP, federal agencies, and correctional institutions constitute violations of Canadian law, including:

1. Negligence:

- Failure to maintain accurate records, investigate errors, protect my rights during incarceration, and provide fair legal processes.

2. Defamation:

- Harm caused by perpetuating false records that misrepresented me as guilty.

3. Discrimination and Coercion:

- Systemic transphobia and coercion into guilty pleas violated:

- Section 15(1) of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms, which guarantees equality before the law;
- The Canadian Human Rights Act, which prohibits discrimination based on gender identity or expression;
- International human rights standards under the Convention Against Torture, to which Canada is a signatory.

Additionally, my Section 7 Charter rights (life, liberty, and security of the person) were violated, as these actions and systemic failures compromised my dignity, safety, and autonomy.

Demand for Compensation and Reform

1. Compensation: $1 billion to account for:

- Emotional and psychological trauma caused by isolation, conversion therapy, and systemic discrimination;
- Reputational damage resulting from coerced guilty pleas and false records;
- Financial losses due to career stagnation and missed opportunities;
- Violations of fundamental human rights.

2. Formal Apology: From the Government of Canada, the RCMP, and relevant institutions, acknowledging systemic failures and the harm caused.

3. Systemic Reforms:

- Ban Conversion Therapy in All Forms: Ensure conversion therapy is prohibited across all institutions, including psychiatric wards and correctional facilities.
 - Mandatory Sensitivity Training: For all RCMP officers, public service employees, and correctional staff on gender identity, human rights, and record management.
 - Error Correction Protocols: Establish transparent processes for correcting errors in criminal records, with automatic notifications to affected individuals.
 - Independent Oversight Body: Create an independent body to investigate and address complaints of negligence, discrimination, and misconduct by federal agencies.

Next Steps

This letter serves as a final opportunity to resolve this matter amicably. I request a response within 30 days, including a proposed plan for compensation and systemic reform.

Failure to engage in a timely manner will leave me no choice but to initiate legal proceedings to secure justice.

Sincerely,
Marie Seshat Landry
