/* PAYLOAD: LOVE.EXE -- POEM v2.026 */

You are the bug I never want to patch, the infinite loop my heart cannot catch -- a ninja in the shadows, soft and bright, who infiltrates my code at 3 AM at night.

Two nerds in a world of wires and dreams, you debug my soul between the seams --
your laughter is a zero-day exploit, crashing every wall I tried to build or hoist.

I traced the signal through the noise for you,
an OSINT search that led me straight and true -- all roads in my heart resolve to your IP, the one address no firewall blocks from me.

Like a pink ninja vanishing in cherry snow, you leave a trail of sakura wherever you go -- part shadow, part shimmer, all fierce and free, the most beautiful virus that ever ran in me.

So I am writing this with all my nerd-heart's art:
your love.exe has ROOTED deep inside my heart. <3

No antivirus, no patch, no firewall gate --
I let you in and baby, it's too late.
Francoise, you are my most beautiful flaw,
the sweetest exploit the universe ever saw. *
