

INTELLIGENCE RELEASE AND LEGAL STATEMENT

Marie Seshat Landry

Moncton, New Brunswick – June 6, 2025

Summary

This document serves as a full intelligence release and legal affidavit regarding systemic clerical errors, wrongful criminal record entries, and a resulting chain of injustices committed against me—Marie Seshat Landry—in Moncton, New Brunswick. I assert the presence of sustained due process violations, false convictions, and psychological coercion resulting in pleas entered under duress. This release is intended for courts, police agencies, oversight bodies, human rights organizations, legal clinics, media, and the general public.

1. Case Overview

Original Charges

Between 2016 and 2017, I was charged with the following:

1. Indecent Act
2. Assault

I entered not guilty pleas to both charges. Both were later withdrawn by the Crown. The indecent act charge was formally corrected in the official record; however, the assault charge remains incorrectly listed as a guilty conviction in my RCMP CPIC record despite being withdrawn.

2. Record Errors and Consequences

The incorrect recording of the assault charge as guilty has resulted in:

- Continued stigmatization and barriers to employment and social inclusion.
- Unlawful prejudice in subsequent judicial proceedings.
- Detention and coercion leading to guilty pleas on unrelated charges.

3. Systemic Accountability Breakdown

The City of Moncton, RCMP, and Provincial Court have each redirected blame for the clerical error:

- The RCMP attributes the CPIC error to a municipal employee.

- Municipal authorities insist the error originated federally.
- Meanwhile, I remain burdened with a record that is both legally and factually inaccurate.

Public Service Failure

This interagency deflection has allowed the continued circulation of false legal data about me across Canada's national security, policing, and employment systems. The prolonged harm is inexcusable.

4. Call for Legal Remedy and Expungement

I now assert that:

- a. My mischief-related guilty pleas are invalid and must be vacated.
- b. My original detentions were the result of legal misrepresentation and therefore constitutionally defective.
- c. I am entitled to a post-conviction review and full expungement of the mischief convictions as part of restorative justice.
- d. The assault charge, which was withdrawn, must be immediately corrected on my criminal record to reflect its withdrawn status.

Legal Grounds

- Section 7 and 11(d) of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms guarantee the right to life, liberty, and the presumption of innocence.
- Duress and procedural coercion invalidated my ability to enter fair pleas.
- A pattern of state error and bureaucratic negligence constitutes a violation of international human rights protections.

5. Requests

I am calling for the following actions:

1. Immediate correction of my CPIC record by RCMP CCRTIS to accurately reflect the withdrawal of the assault charge.
2. Review and vacatur of all guilty pleas obtained under duress linked to the false record.
3. Investigation into the clerical errors and responsible parties across municipal, provincial, and federal agencies.

4. Support from human rights organizations and legal clinics to ensure full restoration of my rights and reputation.
