ABOUT

Marie Seshat Landry is the visionary Founder and CEO of Marie Landry's Spy Shop, a sovereign intelligence firm specializing in AI-powered OSINT, hemp-based defense R&D, and global peace enforcement. She integrates ecological science, ethical intelligence, and post-predatory economics to innovate systems for public accountability, legal reform, and sustainable infrastructure. Her enterprise champions lawful counter-surveillance, civic defense tools, and technological sovereignty, driving the Organic Revolution of 2030.

WORK

Founder & CEO | Marie Landry Spy Shop | Business Consultant

Jan 2019 - Present, Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada

As Sole Founder & CEO, led a global intelligence firm pioneering AI-powered OSINT, hemp-based defense R&D, and ethical governance tools for civic defense and peace enforcement.

- Developed and deployed autonomous GPT-based tools, SpyForMe and PeaceMakerGPT, for monitoring and countering hate speech, war crimes, and misinformation, enhancing global peace enforcement.
- Invented Seshat's Composites, a carbonized ballistic-grade hemp composite currently undergoing NATO-grade testing for defense and green infrastructure applications.
- Authored foundational legal frameworks, 'Organic Law' and 'The Universal Declaration of Organic Rights,' establishing pioneering rights for ecosystems, animals, and sovereign lifeforms.
- Initiated and conceptualized two megaprojects: #MissionSahara, a 9.2 million km² solar-powered hemp civilization, and The New Pyramids Project, projected to feed 1 billion people through 100,000 AI-regulated vegan food pyramids.
