ABOUT

I'm Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry, Founder & CEO of Marie Landry Spy Shop, where I combine strategy, discretion, and innovation to deliver trusted intelligence solutions. I'm passionate about building a bold, client-focused brand, leading high-performing teams, and creating services that turn complex security challenges into clear, actionable outcomes.

WORK

Founder & CEO | Marie Landry Spy Shop | Business Consultant

Jan 2019 - Present, Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada

As Founder & CEO, I lead an intelligence and civic-safety venture focused on OSINT services, AI-assisted monitoring workflows, and ethical governance concepts. I oversee strategy, product direction, and service design across client-facing intelligence work and mission-driven research initiatives.

- Built and iterated AI-assisted OSINT workflows (including SpyForMe and PeaceMakerGPT concepts) to support monitoring, reporting, and accountability use cases.
- Developed policy and governance writing projects, including Organic Law and the Universal Declaration of Organic Rights, as frameworks for ecosystem and lifeform protection.
- Launched strategic concept development for large-scale civic and infrastructure initiatives, including #MissionSahara and The New Pyramids Project.
- Led exploratory R&D on hemp-based composite ideas for defense and green infrastructure applications; materials science work remains in the hypothesis and concept-validation stage.
