

Court File No.: [To be assigned]

FEDERAL COURT

BETWEEN:

MARIE SESHAT LANDRY

Plaintiff

- and -

HIS MAJESTY THE KING IN RIGHT OF CANADA

Defendant

STATEMENT OF CLAIM

(Rule 171)

1. The Plaintiff claims:

- (a) General, special, aggravated, and punitive damages in the amount of $1,000,000,000 (One Billion Dollars);
- (b) Interest pursuant to the Federal Courts Act;
- (c) Costs of this action; and
- (d) Such further relief as this Honourable Court deems just.

2. The Plaintiff:

Marie Seshat Landry resides in Moncton, NB, and is the CEO of Marie Landry's Spy Shop.

3. The Defendant:

His Majesty the King in Right of Canada is represented by the Attorney General of Canada, responsible for acts/omissions of federal departments/agencies, including the RCMP and Correctional Services.

4. Basis of Claim:

From 2016–2024, Plaintiff suffered systemic discrimination, negligence, defamation, and breaches of Charter rights by federal entities:

(a) False Accusations & Erroneous Records:

In 2016, Plaintiff was falsely accused of offenses later withdrawn (Oct. 31, 2016). RCMP records incorrectly showed guilty pleas, persisting 7 years, causing severe harm.

(b) Coerced Guilty Pleas (2016–2019):

Plaintiff was coerced into pleading guilty to false charges arising from self-defense incidents under systemic pressure and inadequate representation.

(c) Isolation and Conversion Therapy:

While incarcerated in New Brunswick, Plaintiff endured prolonged isolation and forced conversion therapy, violating human rights and Charter rights.

5. Particulars of Wrongdoing:

The Defendant acted negligently and discriminatorily by:

- Maintaining inaccurate criminal records. - Failing to correct errors despite notification. - Denying proper legal representation and due process. - Engaging in discrimination (gender identity), violating s. 7 and 15(1) of the Charter, the Canadian Human Rights Act, and international human rights laws.

6. Damages Suffered:

The Plaintiff suffered severe emotional trauma, reputational harm, financial losses, and lasting physical/psychological injury.

7. Relief Sought:

- $1 billion in damages. - Formal apology from Canada and involved institutions. - Systemic reforms: Ban conversion therapy, mandatory sensitivity training, criminal records error correction protocols, independent oversight body.

8. Place of Trial:

The Plaintiff proposes Ottawa, Ontario, as place of trial.

Dated this 21 of February, 2025.
