

COMPLETE GENEALOGY OF MARIE-SOLEIL SESHAT LANDRY

Comprehensive Ancestral Record (17th Century Pioneers & 1755 Grand Dérangement to Present)

Primary Branch Crossroads: Grande-Anse, Gloucester County, New Brunswick

Ancestral Profile: This document records the direct lineage of Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry. Her family tree unites three distinct historical migrations into Grande-Anse, New Brunswick: the Acadian resistance legacy of Alexis Landry (Paternal), the Norman-French maritime heritage of the LeGresley family from the Isle of Jersey (Maternal), and the early New France pioneer line of Guillaume Fournier & Louis Hébert (Maternal).

Master Generational Lineage Table

Gen	Paternal Line (Guy Landry)	Maternal Line (Michèle LeGresley)	Era & Location	Historical Context & Ancestral Roots
1	Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry	Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry	Present (Grande-Anse, NB)	Full convergence of Acadian, Jersey, and French-Canadian lineages.
2	Guy Landry (Father)	Michèle LeGresley (Mother)	20th C. (Grande-Anse, NB)	Union of Acadian Landry & Jersey LeGresley roots in Grande-Anse.
3	Laurent Landry m. Florence Landry	Jean-Paul LeGresley m. Patricia Fournier	Mid-20th C. (Grande-Anse, NB)	Grandparents; anchored community enterprises, carpentry, & fishing.
4–5	Grande-Anse Landry Line m. Local Acadian Spouses	LeGresley & Fournier Lines m. Local Acadian Spouses	1800s–1900s (Gloucester Co.)	Intermarriages along Baie des Chaleurs across fishing & farming hubs.
6	Simon Landry (1778–1859) m. Geneviève Haché	Josue LeGresley (c. 1834) m. Judith Thériault	Early 1800s (Grande-Anse / Jersey)	Simon anchored Landry clan in Grande-Anse; Josue arrived from Jersey.
7	Anselme Landry (1746–1806) m. Marie-Thérèse Brideau	Isle of Jersey Mariners & Gaspé Fournier Line	Late 1700s (Caraquet / Jersey)	Eldest son of Alexis Landry; schooner captain who founded Grande-Anse branch.
8	Alexis Landry (1721–1798) m. Marie-Madeleine Thériault	1755 Jersey Mariners & Baie des Chaleurs Fourniers	1755 Era (Grand-Pré / Caraquet)	1755 Hero: Refused exile at Ft. Beauséjour, survived Miramichi, co-founded Caraquet.
9	Jean Landry (c. 1693–1757) m. Claire LeBlanc	Pioneer Fournier Line m. Early French-Canadians	Early 1700s (Grand-Pré / Quebec)	Jean died during exile crisis; Claire connects to pioneer Daniel LeBlanc.
10	René Landry 'le Jeune' (c. 1634) m. Marie Bernard	Guillaume Fournier (c. 1623) m. Françoise Hébert	1600s Pioneers (Port-Royal / Quebec)	17th Century Pioneers: Original French settlers of Acadia & New France (Louis Hébert line).

Core Ancestral Streams & Historical Legacies

PATERNAL BRANCH: Acadian Resistance & Grande-Anse Resettlement (Landry) • Parentage: Guy Landry (Father), son of Laurent Landry & Florence Landry. • 1755 Anchor Ancestor: Alexis Landry (1721–1798) & Marie-Madeleine Thériault. Refused deportation at Fort Beauséjour (1755), survived Miramichi exile (Camp d'Espérance), and co-founded Caraquet. • Grande-Anse Founder: Anselme Landry (1746–1806), eldest son of Alexis, expanded west to establish the primary Landry clan in Grande-Anse alongside his son Simon Landry (1778–1859). • 17th C. Immigrant Patriarch: René Landry 'le Jeune' (c. 1634–1711) & Marie Bernard in Port-Royal, Acadia.
MATERNAL BRANCH: Isle of Jersey Mariners & New France Pioneers (LeGresley & Fournier) • Parentage: Michèle LeGresley (Mother), daughter of Jean-Paul LeGresley & Patricia Fournier. • LeGresley Line (Jersey): Norman-French origin (Gresley = slender) from the Isle of Jersey. Mariners migrated to Baie des Chaleurs via the Charles Robin cod fishery in the 1800s, establishing permanent roots in Grande-Anse. • Fournier Line (Patricia Fournier): Direct line to Guillaume Fournier (c. 1623–1699, m. Françoise Hébert), granddaughter of Louis Hébert (first apothecary & colonial pioneer of New France, 1575–1627).
INDIGENOUS & ALLIED MATRIARCHAL HERITAGE (Mi'kmaq / Gespe'gewa'gi Alliance) • Early Acadian Matriarchs: Foundational 17th-century Acadian maternal lines include early First Nations marriages (e.g., Catherine Martin, Edmée Lejeune, Anne-Marie 'Sauvagesse'). • Gespe'gewa'gi Mi'kmaq Alliance: During the 1755 exile, Alexis Landry and his family survived the Miramichi famine through direct alliance and assistance from local Mi'kmaq bands. • Gloucester County Roots: Married-in matriarchal lines in Grande-Anse include Brideau, Haché (descendants of Michel Haché-Gallant), Thériault, and LeBlanc.

Genealogical Record: Prepared for Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry • Primary Sources: Centre d'études acadiennes Anselme-Chiasson, Parish Registers of Saint-Pierre-aux-Liens (Caraquet), and Gloucester County Historical Society.