

OSINT Public Indictment: King Charles III and the British Monarchy as a Criminal Enterprise

Issued by: Marie Seshat Landry, Marie Landry's Spy Shop

Executive Summary

This Open-Source Intelligence (OSINT) Indictment Report presents conclusive evidence that King Charles III and the institution of the British Monarchy constitute a transnational criminal organization engaged in systemic theft, genocide, racism, and the ongoing illegal occupation of Indigenous lands globally. This report demands the immediate prosecution of King Charles III and senior Crown officials under international law.

Charges Against King Charles III and the British Monarchy

- 1. Crimes of Genocide (Genocide Convention, 1948): - Historical and ongoing acts of cultural, economic, and physical genocide against Indigenous Nations through forced assimilation, land theft, and systemic marginalization. - Violations of Articles 2(a)-(e) of the Genocide Convention.
 - 2. Crimes Against Humanity (Rome Statute of the ICC, 1998): - Enforced apartheid through the Indian Act, Crown Land designations, and racially segregated governance structures. - Systematic enslavement and exploitation of colonized peoples.
 - 3. Grand Larceny of Global Proportions (Theft of Sovereign Lands): - Fraudulent designation of Crown Land in Canada, Australia, New Zealand, Africa, and the Caribbean. - Violation of UNDRIP Articles 26 and 28 regarding Indigenous land rights.
 - 4. Perpetuation of White Supremacy and Racial Hatred: - Maintenance of hereditary white monarchy as a symbol of racial superiority. - Active support for colonial institutions that enforce racial hierarchies and systemic oppression.
 - 5. International Treaty Violations (Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties, 1969): - Illegitimate treaties imposed under duress, lacking free, prior, and informed consent of Indigenous Nations. - Fraudulent claims of Crown sovereignty over Indigenous territories.
