Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry:

The Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP (CRCC) has received your email of April 27, 2026, and your follow-up email of April 29, 2026, which were in response to the CRCC's end of jurisdiction letter dated April 27, 2026.

As stated in our letter to you dated April 8, 2026, the CRCC's jurisdiction is limited to taking complaints about the conduct of members of the RCMP or other persons appointed or employed under Part I of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police Act (RCMP Act). The request in your emails does not relate to the conduct of members of the RCMP or other persons appointed or employed under Part I of the RCMP Act. As such, the CRCC does not have the authority to handle your complaint or to review the RCMP's letter.

Since we do not have jurisdiction, this will be our final communication with you on this matter.

Please be advised that any further correspondence received concerning this matter will not be reviewed, actioned, or retained.

Regards,

The Civilian Review and Complaints Commission for the RCMP
