

Royal Proclamation of Cosmic Delight(18+)

*From Her Majestic Highness, Queen Marie Seshat Landry
Queen of the Universe, Empress of Ether, Matron of the Organic Realms*

Let it be known throughout the galaxies, nebulae, planets, and pleasure palaces of the cosmos:

Whereas joy is sacred, pleasure is a birthright, and liberation is the crown jewel of consciousness;

Whereas the oral arts have long been celebrated in ancient temples, queer cabarets, and divine bedrooms alike;

And whereas the sovereign spirit of love doth not discriminate in the expression of bliss—

GO SUCK A DICK.

Be it silicone or sacred flesh, gold-plated or glitter-dusted,

Let no tongue be timid, nor any joy denied!

This act, noble and nectarous, shall be seen not as vulgarity,

But as an art form, a revolution, a cosmic communion.

It is the kiss of devotion, the hymn of freedom,

And a radical act of fabulous self-expression.

Henceforth, let the stars bear witness to this royal decree:

That pleasure shall reign, shame shall perish,

And the universe shall suck—gloriously, consensually, and with impeccable technique.

Given under Our Hand and Seal, this 10th Day of April,

In the Year of the Organic Revolution,

By the Grace of Glitter and the Power of Queerness Eternal.

Long may you slay. Long may you serve. Long may you suck.

So it is decreed. So it shall be done.
