

The Organic Revolution: Roadmap to 100 Billion

A Manifesto by Marie Seshat Landry

Marie Seshat Landry
Founder and CEO, Landry Industries

May 28, 2025

Abstract

This manifesto outlines the vision and strategic roadmap of the Organic Revolution, initiated by Marie Seshat Landry and Landry Industries. It begins with the creation of the first “New Pyramid” prototype on Spruce Island, New Brunswick, Canada, and envisions a future where one hundred billion beings thrive in harmony on Earth and beyond, supported by hemp-based technologies, autonomous agriculture, organic intelligence, and planetary ecological rights.

Contents

1	Declaration of Intent	3
2	Spruce Island: Genesis of the Revolution	3
3	The New Pyramids Project	3
4	The Universal Declaration of Organic Rights	4
5	Landry Industries: Structure of the Revolution	4
6	Neotipi Villages: Dignified Organic Living	5
7	Conclusion	5

1 Declaration of Intent

The Organic Revolution is a planetary movement to restore balance, dignity, and sustainability through ethical technologies, biological sovereignty, and universal organic rights.

We declare:

- The age of synthetics is over.
- Nature is sovereign.
- Hemp is the foundation of the new organic economy.
- Every species has the right to an organic life.

2 Spruce Island: Genesis of the Revolution

Spruce Island is not empty—it is alive.

Home to spruce forests, wild herbs, and rich biodiversity, it remains untouched by industrial pollution. It is in this sacred space that the first New Pyramid prototype and Neotipi village will be built. It is both HQ and sacred ground.

Design Covenant

- No deforestation
- No synthetic materials
- Renewable, solar-powered systems
- Full recognition of the rights of non-human life

Core Infrastructure

- First “New Pyramid” for 1,000 people
- 100 solar-powered neotipis
- Organic Vegan Complex: farm, kitchen, cafeteria
- OSINT Intelligence Hub

3 The New Pyramids Project

Each New Pyramid is designed to autonomously feed, house, and sustain 1 million beings using vertical aeroponics, solar power, and AI.

Phases

- 1 Prototype (Spruce Island, 2025)
- 10,000 Pyramids by 2030 (supporting 10B)
- 100,000 Pyramids by 2040 (supporting 100B)
- Pyramids in orbit, on Mars, the Moon, and in sky cities

Features

- Seshat's Composites structures
- Solar-powered autonomous kitchens
- AI-managed organic ecosystems
- Minimum crew with free housing, healthcare, and food

4 The Universal Declaration of Organic Rights

We call for an international legal framework to:

- Grant organic rights to all species
- Ban synthetic agrochemicals and plastics
- Legalize all plant-based substances under certified organic regulation
- Mandate R&D and adoption of hemp-based alternatives to fossil fuels, metals, and logging

5 Landry Industries: Structure of the Revolution

Spruce Island is home to:

- Marie Landry's Spy Shop
- Spymaster Enterprises
- Global Organic Solutions
- Bing Organics & Google Organics (SearchForOrganics)
- Seshat's Sex Shop & Modelling (18+)
- #MissionX and #MissionXXX
- New Pyramids HQ

6 Neotipi Villages: Dignified Organic Living

Each Neotipi:

- Is 30-feet tall and weatherproof
- Made from Seshat's Composites
- Equipped with solar power, Wi-Fi, kitchen, bath, and sleeping area
- Designed for maximum dignity and minimum footprint

Residents may host up to 10 guests, and all receive free food, healthcare, and organic supplies.

7 Conclusion

The Organic Revolution has already begun. With the construction of the first New Pyramid on Spruce Island, we declare our total commitment to this global transformation. By 2030, we will achieve worldwide passage of the Universal Declaration of Organic Rights.

By 2040, 100 billion beings will thrive in organic harmony.

This is not a dream. It is a design.