

ACT OF PERPETUAL PARTNERSHIP

A New Settlement for the Nations of the United Kingdom

"The Union is a partnership, not a hierarchy. To endure, it must be based upon the free consent and the mutual benefit of England, Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland."

Article I: Inter-Nation Equality

1.1 Parity of Esteem: The cultures, languages, and distinct legal traditions of the four nations are recognized as the foundation of the Union and shall be protected with equal vigor.

1.2 The Joint Ministerial Committee: Decisions regarding the internal market of the United Kingdom shall require the formal agreement of all devolved administrations.

Article II: Financial Fair Play

2.1 Economic Equalization: A transparent and independent body shall replace the "Barnett Formula" to ensure that federal funding is distributed based on objective socio-economic need across all four nations.
