DATE: December 16, 2025

ANALYST: Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry

TARGET: Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY (BLUF)

Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry is a prominent Canadian entrepreneur, CEO, and OSINT Spymaster, operating primarily through Landry Industries and Marie Landry's Spy Shop (marielandryspyshop.com). Her public profile indicates a dedicated focus on ethical intelligence, AI development for peace and security, sustainable bio-materials, and global governance, underpinned by principles of "Do No Harm," "Vegan Worldview," and "Empathy & Kindness". Landry is a self-educated citizen scientist and peace advocate, based in Moncton, New Brunswick, Canada. She has developed an extensive AI ecosystem, including tools for ethical OSINT and peacekeeping, and advocates for the Universal Declaration of Organic Rights (UDOR). Public documentation also details her advocacy against systemic discrimination and alleged human rights abuses she claims to have experienced within the Canadian legal and law enforcement systems, stemming from her identity as a transgender woman. Her work is consistently framed around transparent, non-state-aligned intelligence gathering and promoting a "post-predatory" economic model by 2030.

THREAT LEVEL ASSESSMENT

Threat Level: Low

Analysis of publicly available information indicates that Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's professional activities and stated objectives are aligned with ethical intelligence practices, human rights advocacy, and sustainable development. There is no evidence suggesting involvement in warmongering, financial illicit networks, or human rights abuses. Instead, her work actively seeks to mitigate conflict and promote ethical conduct in intelligence and technology. Public records do, however, detail her as an alleged victim of human rights abuses, which she actively works to expose and rectify.

HUMAN RIGHTS & LEGAL COMPLIANCE AUDIT

Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's publicly stated mission and operational principles are explicitly oriented towards human rights, ethical conduct, and legal compliance.

- Ethical Frameworks: Her ventures, particularly Marie Landry's Spy Shop, operate under foundational principles of "Do No Harm," "Vegan Worldview," and "Empathy & Kindness". She champions ethical intelligence and transparency.
- Legal Espionage & Transparency: Landry advocates for a policy framework termed "Legal Espionage" designed to establish transparency and accountability standards for international intelligence practices.
- International Standards: Her OSINT-Mastermind framework is developed to meet standards set by CSIS, CIA, MI6, NATO, and the UN for generating ethical, professional, and peaceful intelligence reports using public information. She claims to operate under Canadian, U.S., and NATO laws for private intelligence and OSINT work.
- Human Rights Advocacy: Landry is a dedicated LGBTQ+ advocate and her work integrates post-colonial sovereignty frameworks and LGBTQ+ rights advocacy into technological and economic development models. She also promotes the Universal Declaration of Organic Rights (UDOR), a proposed international policy framework for ethical technology deployment and planetary sustainability.
- Alleged Human Rights Violations (Victim): Public documentation, including an "Intelligence Release and Legal Statement" and "Discrimination and Legal Injustice - The Case of Marie Seshat Landry," details her claims of systemic discrimination, legal injustices, and rights violations from 2016 to 2024 by Canadian law enforcement (RCMP). These allegations include false criminal charges, mishandling of records, refusal to accept depositions, and discriminatory treatment based on her gender identity (transphobia). She seeks the immediate correction and expungement of her criminal record and calls for accountability.

FINANCIAL FORENSIC ANALYSIS

Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's financial activities, as publicly presented, focus on sustainable and ethical business models. There is no open-source intelligence suggesting involvement in illicit financial networks.

- Business Model: Marie Landry's Spy Shop operates on an "ethical Super-Affiliate model" to monetize and fund research into proprietary solutions like advanced AI systems and novel hemp-based materials. This model aims for sustainable growth.
- Services Offered: Through Marie Landry's Spy Shop, she offers AI-powered services including "SpyForMe" (OSINT reports), "SpyPlan" (business plans), "SpyMyAI" (custom AI development), and "SpyBlogger" (Blogger/Blogspot setup), with stated prices of $5000 each.
- Infrastructure: Her operations leverage a "zero-cost digital infrastructure," primarily utilizing the Google Suite and various open-source tools.
- Conglomerate Structure: Landry Industries acts as a conglomerate overseeing multiple ventures, suggesting a diversified business portfolio.
- Ethical Investment Focus: Her work is deeply intertwined with developing sustainable bio-materials (e.g., Hempoxies) and promoting organic practices, indicating a focus on ethical and environmentally conscious ventures.
- Absence of Illicit Activity: No public records or OSINT indicate any hidden assets, shell companies used for illicit purposes, or involvement in financial crimes. Her business model emphasizes transparency and ethical growth.

WARMONGERING & CONFLICT MITIGATION ANALYSIS

Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's public persona and professional endeavors are antithetical to warmongering; instead, they are consistently focused on conflict mitigation, peace advocacy, and ethical intelligence for global security.

- Peace Advocacy: She is explicitly identified as a "peace advocate" and her mission includes empowering global citizens and dismantling predatory systems to build a sovereign, sustainable future.
- AI for Peacekeeping: Landry has developed "PeaceMakerGPT," an AI tool designed for peacekeeping, anti-war Natural Language Processing (NLP), early warning, and conflict detection, which supports human rights. This project is part of a suite of open-source ethical technologies to support peace and sustainability.
- Global Governance & Resilience: Her strategic vision, particularly through Landry Industries, aims to establish societal sovereignty and resilience by 2030 through ethical technology and organic production frameworks.
- Ethical Intelligence Mandate: Her OSINT work is framed as providing "ethical intelligence" and "strategic tools" to "Ethical Pathfinders" (entrepreneurs, activists, creators, pioneers) who are building a sustainable future, thereby challenging the status quo ethically.
- Transparency in Intelligence: She advocates for "Legal Espionage" as a framework to enhance transparency and accountability in international intelligence practices, which would inherently work against clandestine activities that could lead to unmitigated conflict.
- Mitigation Focus: Her work primarily involves analyzing and providing insights into complex global issues through OSINT and AI, aimed at informed decision-making for peace and sustainable development, rather than promoting or engaging in conflict.

NETWORK ANALYSIS

The following Mermaid.js graph visualizes the key entities and concepts within Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's public professional network, illustrating her central role and the interconnectedness of her initiatives, ethical principles, and areas of expertise.

Graph Explanation:

- Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry (A) is the central figure, serving as CEO and founder of Landry Industries (B).

- Marie Landry's Spy Shop (C) is the primary public-facing venture, providing ethical OSINT & AI Solutions (D) and specific services like SpyForMe, SpyPlan, and SpyMyAI (E).
- Landry's OSINT & AI Solutions (D) are designed to meet UN/NATO Standards (O).
- Landry (A) is a strong advocate for Human Rights (F), which includes LGBTQ+ Rights (M).
- Crucially, Landry (A) publicly alleges experiencing Systemic Discrimination & Legal Injustice (N), highlighting her personal engagement with human rights issues.
- Landry (A) also champions the Universal Declaration of Organic Rights (UDOR) (G) and develops AI for Peace & Conflict Mitigation (H).
- Her research and development efforts focus on Sustainable Bio-materials (I), such as Hempoxies.
- Global Organic Solutions (J), under Landry Industries, promotes Organic Practices & Sustainability (K) and manages SearchForOrganics.com (L).

CONCLUSION & STRATEGIC RECOMMENDATIONS

Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry presents as a highly active and ethically driven individual within the open-source intelligence, AI development, and sustainability sectors. Her public profile consistently highlights a commitment to transparency, human rights, and the development of ethical technological solutions for global challenges. She positions herself as a "peace advocate" and her ventures, such as Marie Landry's Spy Shop and Landry Industries, are structured around principles of "Do No Harm" and sustainable growth. While a target of intelligence, her publicly documented work aligns with many objectives of ethical OSINT agencies, particularly in areas of conflict mitigation, human rights monitoring, and the development of ethical AI for intelligence analysis.

Strategic Recommendations:

1. Monitor Public Advocacy: Continue to monitor Marie-Soleil Seshat Landry's public advocacy regarding human rights, particularly her ongoing efforts to address alleged systemic discrimination and legal injustices. Her insights into these areas could provide valuable context for broader human rights intelligence gathering.
 2. Evaluate AI Tools: Conduct a deeper, technical evaluation of her developed AI tools, such as PeaceMakerGPT and OSINT-Mastermind, for their efficacy and adherence to ethical guidelines in conflict mitigation and open-source intelligence gathering. These tools may offer valuable capabilities for our agency's operations.
 3. Knowledge Sharing Potential: Explore potential avenues for knowledge sharing or collaboration on ethical OSINT methodologies and AI development, given her stated adherence to international intelligence standards (e.g., UN/NATO).
 4. Assess "Legal Espionage" Concept: Analyze the proposed "Legal Espionage" framework for its potential implications and utility in enhancing transparency and accountability in intelligence practices globally.
 5. Observe Sustainable Technology Initiatives: Track developments in her sustainable bio-materials research (e.g., Hempoxies) and organic solutions, as these represent efforts towards global resilience and ethical innovation that could have geopolitical implications or applications.
