

FEDERAL ANTI-CORRUPTION & ETHICS CODE

A National Charter for Integrity in Governance

*"No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other." —
This Charter ensures that the Master of the Public Servant is the People alone.*

Article I: Conflict of Interest

1.1 Asset Transparency: All high-level officials shall publish their full tax returns and asset disclosures annually, accessible to the public in a machine-readable format.

1.2 Trading Ban: Direct trading of equities or derivatives by officials or their immediate families is strictly prohibited during the term of service.

Article II: Influence & Lobbying

2.1 Dark Money Prohibition: All expenditures intended to influence an election must be traced to a verified natural person. Anonymous "Social Welfare" organizations (501(c)(4)s) are barred from political spending.

2.2 The Lifetime Ban: High-ranking officials are barred for life from representing foreign interests that conflict with U.S. national security.

Article III: Judicial Integrity

3.1 Supreme Court Ethics: The Justices of the Supreme Court shall be bound by the same Code of Conduct as all other federal judges, with an independent body assigned to review potential breaches.

