Subject of Complaint: Systemic Violations of Indigenous Sovereignty, Land Theft, and Ongoing Genocide by the Government of Canada

Recipient: Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR)

Legal Basis of Complaint: - United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UNDRIP) - UN Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide (1948) - International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (ICCPR)

Allegations Summary:

1. Systemic Land Theft via Crown Land Doctrine

2. 96% of Canada's land is fraudulently classified as "Crown Land," seized without free, prior, and informed consent from Indigenous Nations.

3. The doctrine of discovery, rejected by international law, is still embedded in Canadian land governance.

4. Genocidal Legislation – The Indian Act

5. Enforced racial segregation, cultural erasure, and political control over Indigenous Peoples.

6. The Indian Act institutionalizes systemic discrimination and apartheid.

7. Ongoing Genocidal Practices

8. Continuation of forced child removals (foster care systems).

9. Resource extraction and environmental destruction on unceded Indigenous territories.

10. Failure to act on the National Inquiry into Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls (MMIWG) findings.

11. Violation of UNDRIP and Genocide Convention Articles

12. Articles 1-4 (Genocide Convention) are actively violated.

13. UNDRIP Articles 26, 28, 32 ignored in Canadian legal frameworks.

Relief and Remedies Sought: - Immediate recognition of Indigenous Nations as sovereign entities under international law. - Full restitution of all unceded Crown Lands to rightful Indigenous ownership. - Abolition of the Indian Act. - International sanctions and legal actions against Canadian government officials complicit in genocidal practices. - Establishment of a UN-led Indigenous Sovereignty Tribunal to oversee decolonization in Canada.

Attachments: - OSINT Report: "Canada's Colonial Genocide" - Legal Indictment Document (Annex A) - Public Petition Signatures (Annex B)

Declaration: I, Marie Seshat Landry, submit this complaint to the UN Human Rights Council and OHCHR for immediate investigation and enforcement under international human rights and genocide prevention mandates.
