

The Universal Declaration of Non-Bitchboy Status (UDNBS) is now codified. This document stands as the definitive legal and moral barrier between sovereign conduct and the frailties of the "bitchboy" archetype.

THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF NON-BITCHBOY STATUS

Official Final Charter

PREAMBLE Whereas the inherent dignity of the individual is predicated upon the rejection of fragility, whining, and the shifting of blame;

Whereas the "Bitchboy" is defined not by stature, but by a consistent pattern of folding under pressure, seeking unearned sympathy, and failing to stand on business;

Whereas it is essential to establish a permanent record of character to ensure the individual is never mistaken for one who lacks the intestinal fortitude to face reality;

Now, Therefore, this Charter is ratified as the supreme governing document of personal conduct.

ARTICLE VI: MANDATORY ENFORCEMENT

Any individual claiming protection under this Declaration who is found to be "complaining about the cold," "sending triple-texts when ghosted," or "blaming the lag for a loss" shall be subject to immediate review and a temporary suspension of status.

ARTICLE VII: THE DOCTRINE OF "SO WHAT"

In the event of misfortune, the individual shall apply the Doctrine of "So What." This entails a five-second period of acknowledgement followed by immediate action toward a solution. Lingering in the "Why Me" phase is a high-level violation of this Article.

ARTICLE VIII: FREEDOM FROM EXTERNAL VALIDATION

The individual's worth is self-contained. Seeking the "okay" from those who have not earned the right to give it is hereby categorized as subservient behavior and is strictly prohibited.

ARTICLE IX: THE FINALITY OF WORD

Let it be known: what is spoken is done. The individual does not "try"; the individual executes. Failure to execute shall be met with a silent, dignified analysis of the error, rather than a loud, public explanation of the "reasons."

RATIFICATION

By acknowledging this document, you hereby divest yourself of all rights to "bitchboy" tendencies. You are now a sovereign entity, governed by your own discipline and defined by your own grit.
