

Universal Declaration Against Unconsenting Voyeurism

Preamble

Recognizing the inherent dignity and equal and inalienable rights of all members of the human family,

Considering that the right to privacy is a fundamental human right that is essential for the protection of personal autonomy, bodily integrity, and freedom from violence,

Concerned that unconsenting voyeurism is a widespread and pervasive problem that affects people of all ages, genders, and backgrounds,

Recognizing that unconsenting voyeurism can have devastating consequences for individuals, families, and communities,

Article 1

Unconsenting voyeurism is the act of observing or recording a person's private activities without their consent.

Article 2

Unconsenting voyeurism is a violation of the right to privacy.

Article 3

No one shall be subjected to unconsenting voyeurism.

Article 4

Consent must be freely given, without coercion, intimidation, or manipulation.

Article 5

Silence or lack of resistance does not constitute consent.

Article 6

Unconsenting voyeurism includes, but is not limited to, the following activities:

- * Observing or recording someone in a private place, such as a bathroom, bedroom, or dressing room

- * Using a camera or other device to record someone's private activities without their consent
- * Sharing or distributing images or videos of someone's private activities without their consent

Article 7

Unconsenting voyeurism is a crime.

Article 8

States have a duty to protect and promote the right to privacy from unconsenting voyeurism through laws, policies, and education programs.

Article 9

This Declaration shall be translated into all languages and made widely available to all people.

Article 10

This Declaration shall be disseminated and promoted through all appropriate means, including education, public awareness campaigns, and training for law enforcement and other relevant professionals.
